of the Sangha on the application of the Dgl of Eds after satisfying himself that the Sangha is in a position to complete the building at an early date

In the same GO it was observed that there would be no objection to the building being named after HH the late Maharaja but before granting formal permission the Sangha was Requested to forward the plan and elevation of the building

2 The Dgl has now forwarded the alternative plans received from the Sangha together with a memorial addressed to HH the Maharaja

The 1st plan is estimated to cost Rs 12,000 while the cost of the 2nd is Rs 6000 The Sangha state that if the former is approved by HH, they may require some additional help from the Govt while if the latter is selected no further help is required

3 The Honorary Secretary of the Sangha promises to complete the building at an early date and so the Dgl requests that the amount may be placed at

Plan No 1 is certainly better than Plan No 2, but it involves an additional grant. In my humble opinion another fifteen hundred (or two thousand) Rs may be granted if this will enable the Sangha to build a Hall as per Plan No 1

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL OF EDUCATION IN MYSORE

No 10823 / 680 Memo (3) Bangalore 12th June 1905

From

H J BHABHA Esq Ina,
Inspector General of Education in Mysore

To B K Venkatavaradaiyangar Esq,
Secretary to the Govt of H H
the Maharaja of Mysore,
General and Revenue depts,
Bangalore.

SIR,

With reference to Govt Order No 4164-66 / 84 Ed dated the 17th November 1904 sanctioning a grant of Rs 3,000 in aid of the Karnataka Vidya Vardhaka Sangha at Dharwar for the construction of a building for the Sanghas, and with reference to your Memo No 9552 / Ed (88-04) dated the 12th April last forwarding to me copy of your letter No 9551 / Ed (88-04) of the same date to the Honorary Secretary to the Sangha, I have the honour to forward for submission to His Highness the Maharaja a memorial addressed to His Highness with alternative plans of the building to be called the Dharmaraja Mandir,

(In a fair case)

received with the Honorary Secretary's letter No 118 dated the 2nd instant

2 With regard to the second para of the Govt Order cited above, I beg to submit that the Honorary Secretary says in his letter that the munificent grant of the Mysore Government has evoked a great deal of gratitude in the people of the Karnatic and that with this help and the funds already available, the Sangha promises to complete the building at an early date

3 Under these circumstances I request that you will be so good as to obtain at your earliest convenience the orders of H H the Maharaja regarding which plan should be adopted by the Sangha and also of the Government as to whether the Grant sanctioned may be placed at the disposal of the Sangha and the Sangha permitted to name the building after His Highness the late Maharaja.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H J Bhabha

Inspector General

To,

His Highness Shri Krishnaraj Wadiar
Bahadur , K C S I ,
Maharaja of Mysore

May it please your Highness

With reference to the order No (4164-66) J D -88-4 , dated 19th November 1904 of the Government of Your Highness , I humbly beg to submit the accompanying plans of the Chamraj Mandir for the Karnatak Vidya Vardhak Sangh for selection and approval of Your Highness

2 The Sangh has secured from Bombay Government a very beautiful site for the Chamraj Mandir just outside the city - proper - The site is the best that can be had in this city It is near the Mitra Samaj , a social club and Gymkhana , where the gentry of the town meet together every day for recreation & culture The Native General Library building is shortly to be erected near our Mandir Again on one side of the Chamraj Mandir lies the beautiful Edward Park and on the other a big Maidan , a general playground for the Dharwar public The site is thus in - every way commanding and charming

3 Paper No 1 contains the sketch of the site as well as the ground plan elevation, front view & side-views of the Chamraj Mandir The Mandir as shown in this plan is 72' x 45' - 6'' i e 3276 square feet and contains three verandahs with beautiful and strong arches , two rooms for the office and Library and a Hall with galleries on three sides The Hall with its galleries will be as it were a town-hall for Dharwar and the Sangh may occasionally lend it for public use The Sangh will naturally become a far more important

and

and influential body than now by thus increasing its sphere of general usefulness The galleries are sp cially meant for females They have taken but little interest in the Sangh up till now but it is hoped that they would do so and frequently attend the Sangh meetings , now that separate arrangements will be made for them in the new building The Sangh would thus be a great factor in educating females whose progress also was the one concern of the late Maharaja of Mysore

4 Paper No 2 contains another plan of the Mandir with two tiled verandahs , one on each side & a front verandah with arches two rooms on the ground flour and a pretty big hall on the upper storey

5 The Mandir sketched in paper No 1 will cost not less than Rs twelve thousand , i e Rs five -- thousand more than the former estimate submitted along with our 1st application to Your Highness for grant for building in connection with the Sangh But the Mandir will be quite worthy of the name of the late Maharaja after whom we propose to name it with the kind permission of Your Highness More-over it will be one of the most artistic buildings in this old city of the Karnatic

6 The Mandir sketched in paper No 2 will cost about Rs 8000 being a little in excess of our former estimate It will also be a pretty good looking-build -ing with the necessary rooms and a hall , but the -- Sangh thinks and I am afraid it is not far wrong in so thinking that the building to be called after the late Maharaja of Mysore should not only serve the -- necessary purposes but also be artistic and beautiful Viewed in this light , the former plan of the Mandir is far superior to the latter The Sangh humbly begs to know which of these plans meets with the approval of your Highness The Sangh humbly requests that Your

Highness will be pleased to permit it to name its Mandir after the late Maharaja of Mysore The Sangh undertakes to erect a Mandir as shown in any of the two plans , approved by Your Highness But in case the 1st plan is approved , the cost of the building will , I am afraid go beyond the means of the institution But the Sangh is confident that when approached again Your Highness will be graciously pleased to give it a further grant in consideration of the -- facts mentioned above As to the 2nd plan of the --- Mandir the Sangh undertakes to build it with the grant already made

7 In making ~~an~~ humble request for making a further grant in case the plan of the Mandir costing Rs 12000 is approved the Sangh solely relies on the kind and munificent patronage shown towards it from time to time by the Mysore Government and the parental kindness towards it by the Maharajas of some It trusts to the liberality and sympathy of Your Highness for the progress of the Kannada language and people

8 The Sangh humbly requests that Your Highness' Government will be pleased to advise it on the several points already mentioned and direct the disbursement of the amount sanctioned The Sangh as a responsible institution begs herewith to promise to complete the building of the Chamraj Mandir as early as possible

Most Humble & Dutiful Servant
